Consumers are like to continue the cosmetics with fruit mixed face cream and to avoid the skin marks, the price of the cosmetics reduced only the entry of the competitors not for consumer satisfaction. So the cosmetics manufacturer should create a awareness of product with reasonable price and also produce the product with eco-friendly to safeguard the health of the consumers.

Conclusion

The cosmetics product like fair cream plays an important role in the present world. This cosmetics has been given beautiful looking and it's give consumers personality confidence. Now Consumers are aware about the chemicals product as well as to maintain the health. So the cosmetic producing companies take green measures to safeguard the consumer health and produce customer satisfied products. Now days everybody has a beauty conscious especially teen-age female are much interested to use cosmetics. Consumers are needed an immediate reaction as well as ever best cosmetics.
